DINNER TO ENTERTAINMENT

SATURDAY MARCH 3, 2012

Brethren,

Here's your chance to show your lady the appreciation she so well deserves. Let's band together with brothers, neighbors and friends. Great entertainment will follow the scrumptious sit down dinner right here at the Scottish Rite Cathedral. Reservations are a must through the valley and full tables of 8 can be reserved.

Pete Geist is a 12-year-old trapped in the body of a 36-year-old man. If Geist were an accountant that might be a problem, but for Geist, a professional comedian, it's a good thing. Geist has been performing his one-man show for 17 years and has been featured at the International Children's Festival in Virginia, the National Theatre's Family Series in Washington, DC, and the Goodwill Games in New York, among other venues throughout the United States, Canada and Europe. As an accomplished physical comedian, he will transform your stage into a whirlwind of energy as he combines his unique blend of new vaudevillian skills and tons of zany audience participation. Geist's brand of physical comedy is an exciting, unique theatrical presentation and a one-of-a-kind phenomenon. Audiences have never seen anything quite like him! Sit back, hold onto your seats and experience his multi-talented, one-man detour to hilarity. Visit him at <http://www.visualcomedian.com/>

Ticket prices for the SHOW ONLY $10.00 Combo includes DINNER and SHOW $30.00
Seating limited to the first 600
